LG Club Seeks Youth Citizens

The Soroptimist Club of Lemon Grove announced this week that applications are now available for the Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Awards for 1970.

Applications have been distributed to the local High Schools and may be picked up in the Counseling Office. Any young man or woman who will be graduating from public or private high school during the 1969-70 school year, but not later than June, 1970 is eligible to apply.

The Soroptimist Youth Citizenship Awards are not scholarships but are 'Awards of Merit'. Each award may be used at the discretion of the recipient, in any way he may decide which will best further his aims and purposes in achieving his goal — education, travel, etc.

The cash awards are paid in lump sums to the winning students. There are 17—$1,000 Awards—one to each winner within the 15 Regions and 2 Affiliated Areas of the Soroptimist Federation of the Americas, Inc.

A $1,500 Finalist Award to one of the 17 winners will make a total award of $2,500 to the finalist.

To qualify for the Awards which are judged on the merit and worth of the applicant, a student must have proven himself in Service, Dependability, and Leadership.

TV Stars Named Parade Marshals

Three girls starring in the new CBS television series "To Rome, With Love" on Sunday evenings will appear in the 1969 Mother Goose Parade as honorary marshals, it has been announced.

Joyce Menges, 19; Susan Neher, 10, and Melanie Fullerton, 6, the television daughters of an American professor teaching in Rome in the CBS family show, will appear in the parade courtesy of Don Feddersen Productions, Studio City, producers of the series. The parade will be held in El Cajon on November 23.

Miss Menges, who started her career as a model for photographic and television commercials, portrays Alison, the 16-year-old daughter of Professor Michael Endicott in "To Rome, With Love." Susan, as Penny, and Melanie, as Mary Jane — or better known to viewers as "Pokey" — are her younger sisters.

Mother Goose Parade officials said additional honorary marshals also are expected from other shows and will be announced later.

PLEA FOR PEACE — Some of the estimated 4,000 demonstrators at San Diego State College march orderly through the library lawn during the nationwide Vietnam Moratorium Day Oct. 15. Demonstrations and counter-demonstrations involved thousands of area residents.

SOME FOR, AGAINST

Thousands Observe Moratorium

Thousands of area people joined millions across the country Oct. 15, displaying pro and con views on Moratorium Day. Demonstrations everywhere were generally peaceful.

Students at Helix and Mt. Miguel High Schools wore black armbands to symbolize hopes for peace, while some Helix students wore red, white & blue armbands in support of President Nixon's policies.

Highlander students also used the football field for singing, poetry readings and discussions on the war.

Mt. Miguel observers estimated that between one-half and one-third of the students wore black armbands.

Grossmont College demonstrations involved hundreds of students as flags were lowered to half-mast, folk-singers performed and polls showed as much as 80% of student opinion supporting the moratorium.

Still others jammed a lecture hall to debate with Veterans Club presentation. Larger demonstrations yet were held at San Diego State College.

A crowd estimated at 4,000 congregated and marched for a swift end to American involvement in the war.

At University of California, San Diego, a crowd of 3,000 gathered to hear speakers plea for peace.

Demonstrations were also reported at Southwestern College, San Diego City College, Mesa College, Palomar College and Mira Costa College.

Eight hundred were reported to have attended the Southwestern rally, while 700 were involved at Mesa.

Nation-wide the demonstrations were orderly and involved such notables as Sen. George McGovern, Sen. Ted Kennedy, Sen. Eugene McCarthy, former White House press secretary Bill Moyers, New York mayor John Lindsay, Atlanta mayor Ivan King, former vice-presidential candidate Edmund Muskie, SCLC leader Rev. Ralph Abernathy, Sen. Alan Cranston, Mrs. Coretta King, Linus Pauling, Tony Randall, Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward and New York Mets pitcher Tommy Seaver.

Between 90,000 and 100,000 jammed the Common in Boston. 35,000 marched in Washington, D.C. and New York City had three rallies with more than 10,000 attending.

The protests weren't confined just to big Eastern cities as 4,000 rallied in Little Rock, Ark., 2,000 marched in Duluth, Minn., and 30,000 gathered near the USC campus in Los Angeles.

White Plains, N.Y., saw 5,000 gather, 3,000 marched through Albuquerque, N.M., and 4,000 gathered in Burlington, Vermont.

Sizable rallies of more than 10,000 persons were also reported in Minneapolis, Chicago, New Brunswick, N. J. and two in Baltimore.

Supporters of President Nixon's policies had a chance to display their sentiments by driving with headlights on. Various quick-counts around the country indicated 10 percent of the automobiles had headlights on.

Planning Chaos To End in Lemon Grove

Citizens Approve Planning; Committee Forms After Jan. 1

"The nearest thing to a New England Town Hall" will be Lemon Grove's Planning Committee, according to Robert Kelsay, chief of Community Planning for the County of San Diego.

Kelsay urged 121 persons who attended the first meeting last week to "take part in the continuing growth of the community."

The meeting, at Lemon Grove Junior High school, was called by the County Board of Supervisors through the Community Planning Division to bring some order out of planning chaos.

Kelsay said community planning often followed growth. "Homes are built, roads are built to serve the homes and schools are built to accommodate the students in these homes, and commercial ventures follow this development — all without prior planning," Kelsay said.

Planning, said Kelsay, should answer the question: "What kind of community do you want?"

More than 75% of all the people at the Wednesday meeting signified that a planning organization should be formed for Lemon Grove.

Kelsay said that he would request the Board of Supervisors to approve the formation. He said that 27 department representatives will work with the Lemon Grove committee to "help you get what you want."

"But these people are not going to tell you what you ought to want. That's up to you. We'll perform the legwork after you decide how you want your community to look."

Kelsay urged the group not to mistake planning for zoning. Zoning, he said, is the Supervisors' responsibility. Only the Board can set zones. Zoning usually follows planning, however, Kelsay said.

Poway, Santee, Fallbrook and Rainbow are in various stages of community planning now, he said. "The beauty of this program is that you get no more than you want," he added.

If a Planning Committee is formed it will be made up of every strata of the community. "There'll be no pressure groups or special interest influence," Kelsay said.

There may be 300-500 people on the committee and none shall be refused who has an earnest desire to serve, he said.

It takes about six months to form a committee, Kelsay noted. However, another general meeting will be called soon after the first of the year. By early Spring, the Committee could be in operation.

A letter will be sent to every Lemon Grove resident prior to the next meeting.

As Community Planning Chief Kelsay reminded that "I can only help you get what you want — but you've got to decide what you want first."

DE MOLAY — Dr. Frank Gigliotti, of 3785 Gigliotti dr., Lemon Grove, made a presentation of the Distinguished and Meritorious Service Medal and Certificate of the International Supreme Council of the Order of De Molay to California Governor Ronald Reagan. According to Dr. Gigliotti, center, the award is rarely made — usually about every five years — for outstanding contribution to youth. It was made to Gov. Reagan for the efforts of his Commission on Children and Youth. Other States have patterned programs on California's. Also in the picture are Illustrious Homer Rathburn, left, Executive Officer of De Molay for California. Gigliotti is a member of the De Molay Supreme Council.

Let Us Pray

A former minister here once told the story of a youngster saying his nighttime prayers, who asked God's blessings on his mother, his father, his sisters and his brothers, his grandpa and grandma, and a long list of other relatives spread across the nation.

He concluded the prayer with the tender request: "Take care of yourself, God — or else we'll all be in trouble."

It was this type of humor that led the U. S. Press Association to warn that one such bunch that God had better watch out for is the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

It was reported that this concretized bureaucracy has recently ordained that the Christian Reformed Church of Corsida, South Dakota, must remove its chapels it constructed along Interstate 90, near White Lake, S.D.

The bureau ruled that such edifices on public highways breach the separation of church and state.

Refuting this silly logic is the fact that we know of no church that is not accessible by public road. And military posts have chapels for the various religious faiths, built with public monies on government properties.

The Bureau of Public Roads is not alone in its discrimination. Part of the blame must be laid on the Court, The Big One. It seems that it is intended that Big Brother will replace God. And in the campaign to eradicate any vestige of religion from schools — and now the public highways — the preaching of brotherhood assume a strange and frenzied tone.

The Sermon on the Mount is verboten.

The Lord's Prayer is only for silent remembrance; don't move your lips.

You can't sing "America" or "God Bless America," or recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

But over the air comes a new religion. It's blared over the radio and by spot announcements on teevees. It's for the Government's "anti-poverty" programs imploring us to give hope, to give jobs — to "Give a Damn."

That's the slogan of the government's brand of religion. "Give a Damn!"

Let us pray.

Boney Urges Senior Citizen Service Office

County Supervisor Henry A. Boney last week urged the establishment of a County senior citizens' service office.

In a letter to the Board of Supervisors, Boney pointed out the needs of San Diego County's more than 100,000 residents 65 years of age and over. "These people are a vital, contributing segment of our total population," Boney said. "I am, therefore, concerned that local government has not provided services or sought to meet the special needs of these citizens."

Boney went on to point out that the United Community Services of San Diego County is investigating the establishment of a senior citizens' information service.

Boney asked the Board of Supervisors to "study the possible establishment of a County senior citizens' service office in cooperation with United Community Services of San Diego County."

Boney's recommendation envisions an information and referral service for senior citizens, with emphasis on housing, social security and medical care benefits, employment, and the availability of recreational facilities.

The County of Los Angeles currently has a Senior Citizens' Affairs Department providing many of the services suggested by Boney.

It is expected that the Board of Supervisors will consider Boney's proposal at the regularly scheduled meeting on Monday.

Engineers Prepare $1.9 Million Plan To Improve Brookside Ditch

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A $1.9 million plan for permanent improvement of the Brookside drainage channel and its tributary creeks has been prepared by the county engineering staff.

The study was made at the request of Supervisor Henry Scheidle, whose district includes Brookside.

Its extent is for a cost determination and it does not include detailed engineering plans.

The basic project would cost $936,000 in the City of La Mesa and $852,000 in unincorporated territory, but this does not include covering the Brookside channel which is the long-time aim of Brookside residents.

No recommendation is included in the report as to whether the county and La Mesa should actively pursue formation of the large assessment district that would pay the cost.

Scheidle's administrative assistant, Jerry Mann, said the plan will be discussed with local residents to determine if there is support.

The engineers said the Brookside improvement appears to fall below the cost-benefit ratio to qualify it for federal participation.

Therefore, the cost would have to be locally borne by the property owners, although the Board of Supervisors could approve county participation, either through the general fund or the flood control district.

The plan suffers what could be a fatal defect. It assumes that some 4,000 parcels of property will benefit equally so that the cost will be widely shared.

However, it has been shown many times that people living on the higher ground without drainage problems do not make the same assumption.

An open, fenced concrete lined channel through Brookside is the basic plan, but three alternates are proposed.

All of the alternates provide for a closed box culvert through Brookside, but also for 70 percent of the cost to be borne by the lots fronting on the channel and 30 percent shared in the rest of the subdivision.

The simplest alternate would cost $180,000 and the most elaborate, which provides for a planted medium strip on top of the culvert would cost $245,000.

The $180,000 alternate would cost $6,480 per acre, and the engineers estimate that the average cost to each parcel fronting on Fairway drive would be $1,460.

The cost per acre in the basic city-county plan is estimated at $2,250 to correct all of the drainage deficiencies.

Of the total project of $1,928,000, including construction and incidental costs, the engineers recommend that the county pay only for box culverts at road crossings.

This amounts to $101,000, but further participation could be granted by the supervisors.

If the total project did not go, it would be possible to cut it back to Brookside alone, but the costs would rise so sharply on individual parcels of land as to make this even more improbable than the basic plan.

One county official who did not want to be identified said, "The cheapest solution might be for the county to buy all of the property fronting on Fairway drive and the ditch."

"The houses could then be resold with the proviso that each property buyer signs a covenant statement that he or she has seen the ditch and will not complain about it."

This statement was only half in jest.

Down through the years since the La Mesa Country Club was converted into a subdivision over the protest of then-county engineer Joe Mack, the files of complaints and investigative reports has grown as the people have groaned.

As the pile of paper has accumulated, so has the cost of staff time in seeking solutions to the impass, an impass based on money. Everybody wants the ditch covered and everybody wants somebody else to pay for it.

Mann said that Scheidle will circulate the report in the area and in a few weeks set up meetings with the always-interested parties.

The indication is that if this plan does not go forward, the county will not act on any more petitions from Brookside with reports or special hearings, but will file complaining letters in the bludgeoning Brookside file.

Waterways do not exist in localized areas and co-incident to the Scheidle report, the county has received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Rowland S. Baston of 3215 Central ave., Spring Valley.

The Bastons live downstream from Brookside and are alarmed at the present county action in enlarging an under-road culvert at Fairway and Par drive.

The inadequacy of this and other under-road culverts dams up the water during rains and lessens both the flow and velocity of the downstream water.

The engineering report agreed to some extent with the complaint of the Bastons. It said that if the basic project was completed before the Spring Valley Creek flood control project, it would "have a serious effect on the already existing flooding problems along the lower reaches of the Spring Valley Creek."

Mukai Appeal On Mobilhomes Rejected Again

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors on Tuesday rejected the appeal of Thomas D. and Abraham K. Mukai for a 400-space mobile home park in the Lemon Grove Zoning District.

The supervisors, as they heard the testimony, belatedly realized Lee Sparks, representing the applicants, was proposing something quite different than the plan the county planning commission had denied.

The property is located on the east side of Sweetwater rd. and on the south side of Palm st.

Approximately one half of the property will be taken when the state builds freeway 125, but this is at an undetermined time in the future, although engineering is well along and some right of way has been required.

Assistant planning director Jack Lamb told the board that the grading plan for the land will leave no grade steeper than 15 percent as announced by Sparks was a new feature that the commission had had no knowledge of when it denied the special use permit.

The commission had also found that access to the park was not adequate.

Standard Time Begins

Daylight saving time will revert to normal standard time this weekend.

Clocks will be set back an hour at 2 a.m. Sunday morning, giving sleepers an extra hour to doze.

United Crusade In Progress

Lemon Grove's United Crusade now in progress is again offering the best deal of the year to this community.

Documented figures show that services offered and rendered to Lemon Grove people by the 65 San Diego county-wide Crusade supported agencies far exceed the dollars contributed locally.

Frank Shughrue, Jr., Crusade community chairman for Lemon Grove asks: "Can you imagine Lemon Grove without the services rendered to our people by Visiting Nurses, Family Counseling Service, Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross and all the other health, human care and youth services supported by United Crusade? These agencies are the heart beat of our community. We pay a very small price in contributions to the annual Crusade for so much in return."

Examples of services rendered in Lemon Grove in 1968 by United Crusade supported agencies are as follows:

Visiting Nurses made 704 visits. Mercy Clinic served 63 Lemon Grove patients. San Diego Speech and Hearing Center gave 216 clinical evaluations, 340 speech therapy and 311 hearing education sessions. San Diego County Association for Retarded Children had 3 Lemon Grove children in day training centers. United Cerebral Palsy gave needed service to 6 local cases. Homemaker Service of San Diego offered 21 days' care to 3 families.

Family Counseling Service assisted 32 families with 103 interviews. Child Guidance Clinic served 12 emotionally disturbed children with 211 interviews and 16 parents with 72 interviews. Catholic Family Service had 11 local clients and 48 interviews. Episcopal Community Service gave 6 interviews. Legal Aid Society had 93 clients from this area. Salvation Army Door of Hope provided 61 days' care for 2 Lemon Grove girls. Travelers Aid provided emergency assistance for 12 individuals and 8 families. Children's Home Society of California provided adoption and related services to 12 local families. Salvation Army had 24 senior citizens as program participants.

Boy Scouts had 925 boys and 318 adults enrolled in 25 troops, packs and posts. Girl Scouts had 395 girls and 98 adults in 19 troops. Camp Fire Girls had 78 girls and 32 adults in 8 Lemon Grove groups. YMCA numbered 2,404 participants and 161 members. YWCA had 176 program participants. San Diego State College, YMCA-YWCA had 20 members and 60 program participants from Lemon Grove.

Boys' and Girls' Aid Society offered 459 days' care and treatment to 2 children. American National Red Cross gave counseling and assistance to 168 military families. In addition, Red Cross issued 23 First Aid and 180 Water Safety certificates. Jewish Community Center had 48 members from Lemon Grove.

Methodists Plan Party

The Couples Club will hold a Halloween Party in the Don Cooke "Pirate's Island" at the church, Saturday, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Their definition of a couple is — anyone who is part of a couple, has been a part of a couple, or someday will be a part of a couple. No reservations are necessary, so please come and enjoy a fun-filled, spooky evening of fellowship with us.

The Men's Club plans a "Work Day" at the church Oct. 25. Anyone having an hour or a day to donate helping with projects needing completion, please come join us.

David Warfe, Director of Education, will be teaching a course in "Foundations in Christian Teaching" Oct. 27 and 28, 7 to 9:30 in the church lounge. This course is for current teachers or anyone interested in becoming a teacher.

We have active Youth Groups — 7th and 8th graders; 9th and 10th; 11th and 12th; and a College Group — that meet on Sunday evenings. Church membership is not mandatory to be a member of these groups. Anyone interested in joining, please phone the church office and one of the members will be happy to call on you.

"Trick or Treat for UNICEF" is being sponsored by the Youth Groups of the church. These young people have volunteered to take the younger children out into the community Thursday, Oct. 30. Jayne Relatford and Melissa Knight are planning the evening, including a Halloween party after the UNICEF March.

Sunday, at 7:30 a.m. The Methodist men will sponsor their breakfast for ALL men of the church.

O'Donnel May Stay Kiwanis Treasurer

Bill O'Donnel, a member of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, and owner of a local paint store, has been acting as treasurer of the Spring Valley Kiwanis Club, since the resignation of Hoyt Brown, who, with his wife, has moved to the East Coast.

Indications are that O'Donnel possibly may be appointed treasurer to fill out Brown's unexpired term of 1969-70.

Warren Bellows, another member of the club, was guest speaker at the Oct. 15 breakfast-meeting of the club at Golden Bowl. Bellows is a career training specialist for the Grossmont Union High School District and had two of his students (one from Mt. Miguel and one from Monte Vista) as guests at the Oct. 15 meeting. He talked on the subject of "Vocational Placement for High School Students."

Presbyterians Hear Planetary Theme

"Five Years in a Planetary World" is the theme to be considered by ministers and lay leaders from United Presbyterian churches in nine Southland counties and Hawaii at the fifth annual Theonetics Symposium to be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, at Edgewater Inn Marina Hotel, Long Beach.

Theonetics ("theos" — God, plus "cybernetics" is defined as "the study of God's continuing creation in and through the new and changing world, and its effect upon the humanity of man."

The conference opens Friday at 8:30 a.m. and continues to 5:45 p.m. Saturday, with major sessions concerned with such timely subjects as "Future Focus on Fantasy," "Century 21 Planning," and "Technological and Social Imbalance."

Briefings by key spokesmen in the scientific and religious fields will provide explorations into various areas of life and their relationships "to Christianity, followed by discussion periods ("theoprobates").

"Master theologian" will be President Arnold B. Come of San Francisco Theological Seminary, with Southland ministers participating in the theoprobates.

"Theological-scientific interface in our new world of interplanetary travel is the searching quest of this meeting," said Edward B. Lindaman, aerospace executive and guiding hand behind the five years of the Theonetics program.

The annual symposium is sponsored by a special task force of the Synod of Southern California, United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Republican Women Meet Tuesday

La Mesa Republican Women's Club Federated will hold its monthly meeting October 28 at 10:30 a.m. at the Bronze Room, La Mesa.

The carnival will be held Friday, October 31, beginning at 5:30 p.m. till 8:30 p.m. at the school.

The dinner menu will include hamburgers, tacos, hot dogs, chili, pie, cake and various desserts to be served in the cafeteria.

MT. VERNON

An opportunity for area school children to attend four special concerts by the San Diego Symphony may be made through the Mount Vernon Elementary School PTA.

Ticket reservations, however, must be made by tomorrow in order to take advantage of the offer.

The concerts will be held on Saturday mornings at 11:30 a.m. in the San Diego Civic Theatre and all children in grades three through eight may attend at discount prices.

The orchestra is presenting the concerts on December 13, January 17, February 7 and April 4, and students will be admitted to all four for a total price of $2, or 60 cents for a single concert.

The PTA will attempt to arrange transportation for interested children.

Plans are for the December 13 affair to contain music by Wagner and Britten; January 17, music of Copland and Strauss; February 7, music of Beethoven; and April 4, music of Vivaldi, Prokofiev and Dukas.

Parents wishing to enroll their children in this plan must contact the Mount Vernon School, 463-8901, by the close of classes tomorrow afternoon.

Mitsuhashi-Goode Wedding Brings Guests From Japan

Wearing the traditional Japanese wedding kimono, ivory satin embroidered with peach blossoms, Miss Momoko Mitsuhashi of Tokyo was united in marriage to Burrwell Goode, son of Mrs. Charles Goode of 690 Live Oak dr., El Cajon, recently in the All Souls Unitarian Church in New York City. The wedding gown was designed by her father, Takeaki Mitsuhashi, a well-known Japanese artist.

Family members attending the ceremony were the groom's mother, his aunt, Mrs. Thomas Fouch of Cincinnati, sister of his father, the late Charles Goode, and flying from Japan was the bride's brother, Hiroshi Mitsuhashi. Among guests at the reception at the Nippon Club were friends from Japan and India and several Americans who had as exchange students made their home with the bride's family in Tokyo.

A graduate of the University of Tokyo and of Antioch College of Ohio, the bride, an art major, has been studying at Columbia University and working at the United Nations.

"Burr" Goode, Grossmont graduate of 1955, was active in the school band, student body and various clubs at the local school. Following his graduation from Stanford he studied at the University of Pennsylvania and University of California at San Diego. Presently, he is completing work on his doctorate at Stanford.

The Goode family have been active in San Diego and the Pothill area since coming here in 1952. The late Charles Goode was assistant director of San Diego County Public Works, and Mrs. Goode has served 14 years as a member of the boards of Grossmont High School and Grossmont College.

Glen Reiter is Rotary Guest

Glen Reiter will appear at the weekly luncheon and meeting of Spring Valley Rotarians Friday at Henry Langhorst's Restaurant at 12:10 p.m.

Reiter, manager of the Otay Water District, will speak and show films on water reclamation.

CAN'T CATCH UP — Gary Heiserman of Mt. Miguel trailed El Cajon's Leo Nicolet 40 yards from the finish and ended up that way as Nicolet hung on for a 9:08 win on Miguel's course Friday.

The Matadors, however, paced by Heiserman's second-place finish, won the meet, 26-33.

Chargers Tackle Raiders With Win Streaks On Line

In a year of struggle, the scrappy San Diego Chargers reach a day of decision Sunday.

Sid Gillman's score-poor, win-rich wonders collide with the mighty Oakland Raiders at San Diego Stadium at 1 p.m. Winning streaks and title hopes ride on the big game to be televised nationally outside of Southern California.

"Happiness is winning," read the large button on Coach Gillman's lapel after the Chargers had scraped by the Boston Patriots, 13-10, at Boston College's Alumni Field last Sunday.

San Diego (4-2) has won four games in a row, its longest win streak since the first games of 1966, despite a paucity of scoring which is baffling Gillman and quarterback John Hadl. Only once in 1969 have the high-powered Chargers tallied more than 21 points.

Oakland (5-0-1) has an unbeaten streak of 14 AFL games in its drive to a third successive Western Division championship. Only a 20-20 tie with Miami punctuates the current tear. But the Raiders still find themselves in the perennial Western Division dogfight with Kansas City (5-1) and San Diego.

The Chargers are hoping that history will repeat. It was little more than a year ago that they snapped a 14-game Oakland win streak with a 23-14 stunner at Oakland. It preserved San Diego's own AFL record of 15 consecutive victories in 1960-61.

Oakland appears primed for the Chargers this time. With Darle Lamonia passing for six touchdowns, the Raiders demolished Buffalo, 50-21, last weekend.

Sunday's game has added meaning for Oakland's rookie coach, John Madden. The former San Diego State College assistant coach will be after his first win in San Diego. Madden's team lost to the Chargers, 10-7, in a pre-season game this year.

Miguel Serious; Record 3-0 After 20-2 El Cajon Romp

The Matadors are serious about their Grossmont League title intentions.

Mt Miguel ran their record to 3-0, blitzing El Cajon 20-2 Friday night on the winner's field.

The Matadors, who lost only to non-league Sweetwater, will be tested severely tomorrow night by an up-and-down El Capitan team that's flying.

El Cap, the pre-season league favorite, swamped Helix last week, 34-8, as Bill Fudge ran wild with four touchdowns.

The Matadors used a 52-yard pass from Tom Madigan to Larry Caudillo to go ahead in the first quarter. Tom Young added the kick to make it 7-0.

El Cajon drove to the Matador two-yard line in the second period, but turned over the ball on a fumble. The Braves recovered, however, to trap Madigan in the end zone for a safety.

Chris Wilhite ran 43 yards for a score in the third quarter and Larry Caudillo scampered 13 yards for another in the fourth with Young converting to cap Miguel's scoring.

Young also intercepted a pair of passes to run his season's total to six.

El Capitan, paced by 6-1, 207-pound junior halfback Fudge, literally stampeded over Helix.

Fudge ran for 235 yards in 20 carries, scoring on runs of 70, 54 and 1 yards and an interception return spanning 73 yards.

The Vaqueros, however, dropped an important face-off to unbeaten Grossmont earlier in the season, and are a full game behind Miguel and the Foothillers.

The winner tomorrow night will be established as Grossmont's challenger.

Grossmont Crunches Monarchs, Campoli

By SCOTT MCGAUGH

Monte Vista is 1-3 overall this year and 2-3 counting an early scrimmage against Oceanside.

Now normally that's not much of a record to crow about. The amazing part is that all four teams that the Monarchs have played have been ranked in the County's top ten teams.

Monte Vista dropped a 20-13 decision Friday to the Grossmont Foothillers at Monte Vista.

It was a game marked by very few mistakes by either club but a 256 yard running total by the Foothillers made the difference.

Phil Allen of Grossmont did most of the damage while Dan Dudley also ran well against a tough Monarch defense.

However, the worse part of the defeat didn't come until the third quarter. Monarch Vince Campoli was hit after a four-yard gain and couldn't get up. Unofficial sources after the game revealed that Campoli may be out for the season with a knee injury.

The Monarchs will take on the Santana Sultans this Friday at El Capitan.

Meanwhile in cross country, the Monarch harriers continued their domination with a 15-49 whipping of Grossmont.

The first five places were all Monte Vista as the top five Monarch harriers finished in a dead heat.

The Jayvee squad bettered the Varsity effort with a 15-50 win.

The Frosh then concluded the Monarch sweep with an 18-45 win with Monarch Tom Wendt picking up a first.

The Monarch girl swimmers tied with Helix for first place in the Grossmont League relays Thursday as both squads tallied 90 points.

Monte Vista was able to pick up a first in the 150 no-vol relay and thirds in the 200 freestyle relay, 200 backstroke relay and 200 butterfly plus a second in the 150 no-vol relay.

In water polo, the Monarchs continued their assault for the school's first water polo championship by downing, (or maybe it's drowning) two more opponents.

Oceanside fell victim to the Monarch attack, 9-7, thanks to an excellent effort by Phil Peters.

Army-Navy was then trounced by Monte Vista 11-1 as the Monarchs manhandled the home squad.

John Kraftli, Rob Morell and Gordon Dunnall all led the Monarchs to victory.

Monte Vista is undefeated in league play and in first place.

In getting back to the gridiron, the league statistics were released with three Monarchs well up in the individual leaders.

Dan Read is ranked third among quarterbacks with 207 passing yards. Vince Campoli is fifth in rushing with 140 yards while Bob Martin is fifth also in receiving with seven receptions for 63 yards.

Aztec Gridders Chew Up Yards

San Diego State's grid machine, rolling up impressive statistics every outing, are getting nationwide notice for their efforts.

The Aztecs, including individuals Dennis Shaw and Tom Reynolds, rank high in offense and defense.

They lead the nation in total defense (163 yards a game) and rank third in rushing defense.

SDS also went from third to second in forward passing offense (327.3 yards a game) and went from seventh to third in total offense (149.3 yards).

Shaw, the 6-2 quarterback, has moved from off the chart to rank 14th in total offense and 15th in passing yardage. Most of the players on each list have played at least one more game than Shaw, who is quickly catching up.

Reynolds is also making up for lost time. He scored two more touchdowns against West Texas State to up his total points to 48, good for a tie for fifth, and just 18 points from first.

The fast receiver also ranks among pass-catchers with 20 catches for 222 yards. Among his 20 catches, of course, were eight scoring receptions, a startling statistic.

Gulls Return For Canucks

PHOENIX — The San Diego Gulls close out a three-game road trip here tonight, then return home for their first meeting of the season with the defending Lester Patrick Cup champion Vancouver Canucks.

The Canucks and Gulls will meet at the Sports Arena Sunday at 7 p.m. in the opener of their seasonal series. Vancouver appears to have another powerhouse team and the 12 games between the teams figure to be rousers.

Tonight's game will be the second between the Gulls and Roadrunners, who are vastly improved over last season's fifth-place team. Phoenix knocked off the Gulls 12 days ago in the San Diego home opener and the Gulls would like to even that account.

San Diego opened the road trip at Salt Lake City on Tuesday and played last night in Denver.

Last weekend, the Gulls defeated the Portland Buckaroos, 5-3, for their first win of the season. Len Ronson paced the win with a three-goal hat trick.

The Gulls skated to a 3-0 lead in the opening period. "We played excellent hockey in that first period and could have had a few more goals than we did get," said Coach Max McNab. "Portland came back and made a real tight game out of it."

Four Pools Open

Four new municipal swimming pools located on Artillery dr. in Kearny Mesa, at Memorial Junior High, Valencia Park and Colina del Sol Recreation Center are now open for recreational swimming on weeknights as well as on weekends, the City Recreation Department has announced.

The pools will operate from 5-8 p.m. Monday through Friday following use during the day by City Schools.

On Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon the pools will be open both for free swimming and for free lessons for beginners.

Golden Bowl Standings

Some good scores have been chalked up on the lanes of Golden Bowl, this past week.

In the His and Hers league, Rex McCormbs rolled a 226 for the men's handicap game.

For the Valley Trio group, Augie Walton came up with an 817 for his individual series; and Gordon Tucker had a 226 for an individual game.

In the Golden 850 Mixed league, Andy Anderson rolled a 237 for his men's game.

For the Pyrites, Joy Parrott chalked up a 208 for her high score game.

The U.T.L. 850 Division, saw Sid Jackson roll a 239 for his individual game.

The Gold Fingers league saw Mary Ehrlich come up with two good scores; a 609 for her series and a 235 for her high game.

In "scratch" games for the Interservice Plus league, five persons came up with good figures: Arnold Stuart, with a 645 scratch series; Tom Shippen and Niel Nielsen, each a 236 scratch game; Doris Collins, a 568 scratch series; and Mim Russell, a 223 scratch game.

STANDINGS
His and Hers: Team No. 5, first; Team No. 3 and Admire Plumbing, tied for 2nd; Team No. 4 and Pinbusters, tied for 3rd.

Valley Trio: Team No. 8, first; Admire Plumbing and Mission Van and Storage No. 1, tied for 2nd; Western States Cast Stone, 3rd.

Shriners Look For Record Attendance

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley partisans are expected in record numbers Saturday night when undefeated San Diego State College meets the University of California at Santa Barbara in the annual Shrine charity football game.

Shrine Noble Dick Sims of 1850 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove, president of the Al Bahr culinary unit, said special buses have been chartered to transport fans to San Diego stadium for the 7:15 p.m. start of festivities.

He said spectators will be treated to 45 minutes of pre-game activities, including the appearance of 58 separate marching bands and drill units from a score of military, educational and fraternal organizations.

Sims said half-time festivities again will feature a spectacular fireworks display as well as a special musical program arranged by the marching bands of San Diego State and the Naval Training Center.

In addition, he said Saturday night's anticipated crowd of 52,000 will be introduced to youngsters who have been treated at a Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children.

Among these will be Shawn Easter, an 11-year old Poway youngster who lost her left leg in infancy and continues to have prosthesis adjustments at the Shriners hospital in Los Angeles.

This unit is one of 22 orthopedic and burn hospitals the fraternal order operates in the United States, Canada and Mexico and is the direct recipient of net proceeds from Saturday night's game.

To accommodate last-minute ticket buyers, Sims said $2 general admission and $4 and $5 reserved seats will be placed on sale at noon Saturday in the stadium box office.

Unbeaten Aztecs Host Gauchos Saturday

The Aztecs will be making their first home appearance since the season opener on September 27 when they play the University of California at Santa Barbara this Saturday night.

San Diego (4-0 overall) will be placing its 2-0 PCAA record on the line when they entertain the Gauchos, UCSB is 0-2 in conference action, having lost to Cal State Long Beach (32-16) and the University of the Pacific (38-0). On the year, UCSB stands at 2-3.

A win by San Diego would mean another step towards the PCAA title and a berth in the Pasadena Bowl on December 6.

Last Saturday, Coryell's crew extended its unbeaten string to 15 at the expense of the University of Texas at Arlington, 27-10. The Aztecs now stand 39-1-1 since mid-1965, losing only to Utah State in 1967.

"We played a really well-coached, fire up team," commented Coryell on UTA's showing. "They do a real good job of coaching down there at Arlington."

The Aztecs rolled up 430 yards total offense with All-America quarterback candidate Dennis Shaw and full-back George Brown providing the offensive punch. But, it was another fine job by the SDS defense that keyed the victory.

Tutored by Claude Gilbert and Ernie Zampese, the Aztec defense intercepted six UTA passes, recovered two fumbles and blocked a field goal for possibly its best all-around game of the young season.

"I thought our defense played real well," said defensive co-ordinator Gilbert. "We made a few mechanical errors, but overall we did a real good job."

Shaw hit 14 of 28 passes for 262 yards and one touchdown to account for a little more than one-half the total yardage. Shaw now has 71 completions (out of 126 attempts) for 1097 yards and 11 TD's. He has, however, been intercepted 10 times — nine in the last two games.

Arlington put the skids on the Aztecs' one-two receivers Tom Reynolds (3-28) and Tim Delaney (2-29), so Shaw went to flanker Ken Burrow. The rangy junior had six catches for 115 yards. Burrow's yardage is the second highest this year for an Aztec receiver (Reynolds had 211 against San Jose).

Brown provided two-thirds of the rushing yardage. The Aztec junior had his best night ever with 101 yards on 24 carries. Overall, SDS gained 163 yards via the turf.

100 Entries Expected For Tourney

More than 100 entries are expected for the San Diego 200th Anniversary Open Handball Tournament scheduled at the downtown branch of the YMCA and at the Copley YMCA Oct. 25 through Nov. 25.

The tournament is sponsored by the San Diego 200th Anniversary Inc., the Downtown YMCA and the Ira S. Copley Memorial YMCA.

"The tournament is open to everyone, and will be held in both singles and doubles categories," according to Tom Penick, co-chairman of the 200th handball committee.

"The tournament will be run under U. S. Handball Association rules and awards will be given to first and second place singles and doubles and third place singles," Penick said.

Singles play will start Oct. 25, and doubles play will start Nov. 15.

Entrance fee for singles is $3 per person which includes a 200th Anniversary t-shirt and $2 per person for doubles.

Entry forms and information may be obtained at the Downtown YMCA, 1115 Eighth ave., or by calling 232-7451.

ALMOST DONE — Workmen put the finishing touches on newly-constructed Mt. Miguel press box. The press box, a larger improved version of Miguel's old band box, is scheduled to be completed next week. The project was financed by the Mt. Miguel Boosters Club.

Best Helix Scholars Include Grove Pair

Four students at Helix High School including two from Lemon Grove, have been named Semifinalists in the 1969-70 National Merit Scholarship program.

The students are Keven Gerhart, Bruce Grandjean, Dean Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jacobs, 8594 Butte st., Lemon Grove; and Tina Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Savage, 6790 Hibiscus, Lemon Grove.

The 15,000 Semifinalists appointed are among the nation's most intellectually talented high school seniors. They will compete for about 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1970.

The Semifinalists were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, which was given last February to some 750,000 students in 17,250 schools nationwide. They constitute less than 1 percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

The semifinalists are representative of the country's most intellectually able young people, according to Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Letters of Commendation were awarded to nine students. They are Joan Able, Michael Gilmartin, Oliver McConnell, Rolfe Moore, John Rudolph, Tomas Thorvick and Gunars Valkirs.

The commended students rank just below the 15,000 Semifinalists.

"Although commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their outstanding record in a nationwide program serves public recognition. Their significant academic attainment gives promise of continued success in college," Smith said.

READY FOR FUN — All set for Golden Ave. School's annual Halloween Carnival are Mrs. Phyllis Landry, Mrs. Jo Smith, Mrs. Kazuko Hobbs and Mrs. Jean Seymore.

The Barrett Valley School for Retarded Children is conducting a paper drive on Saturday. Collection centers are 7640 University ave., La Mesa, and 6310 Federal blvd., Lemon Grove.

Mt. Vernon Schedules Best Fest

"The Biggest and the Best," is the promise for this year's Halloween Carnival to be held at the Mount Vernon Elementary School, Oct. 31. The school is located at 8352 Mount Vernon.

Open to all area residents from 5 to 9 p.m., the carnival annually is sponsored by the Mount Vernon PTA.

Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tresser, the carnival offers a varied assortment of games and features a special spook house. The latter has been designed by Mrs. Frank DuFon and was the highlight of last year's event.

Whitt Passes Adams In Point Totals

Jim Whitt and Carl Adams, will bash fenders in the next-to-last super stock car program this Saturday night at Cajon Speedway, each hoping to pick up points in a wild battle for first place.

Whitt, who won last week's main event, moved into first place in the point standings with a total of 3310, while Adams, who managed only fourth last week, is riding the second position with 3285.

Other drivers to watch for include former champion Russ Bullen, Ed Hale, who has won two main events this season, and John Dineen, who is moving steadily up the points ladder.

Whitt, taking advantage of a five car pile-up on the thirteenth lap, grabbed the lead and held on to win his sixth 30-lap main event of the year over, Cajon Speedway's 3/8 mile asphalt oval.

Whitt, of El Cajon, started in the sixteenth position, and picked up enough points for passing and winning to sneak by Adams in the championship point standings. Adams finished fourth in the 30-lapper, for super stocks.

Ross Bullen took second place in the hair raising affair, while John Dineen, who also set the fast time in qualifying at 19.18, netted third. Ed Hale, of Lemon Grove managed fifth.

Also slated for Saturday night is the last race of the year for the Powder Puffers, as the girls race for double points.

Gals to keep in mind include Diane Porter and Joy Swentskofske, who are engaged in a rugged battle for the points championship. Kathy McLaughlin, who is consistently near the front of every race, and Helen Elliot, El Cajon's pride and joy.

Rockets-Phoenix Duel Reopened

SAN DIEGO — The San Diego Rockets and Phoenix Suns are expected to continue their torrid duel of a week ago when the two National Basketball Association clubs square off Saturday night in an 8 p.m. match at the San Diego Sports Arena.

The second meeting of the two teams this season will be broadcast over KFMB (760) with Bill Howard at courtside.

Tickets for the contest, at $5, $4 and $3 for reserved seats and $2 general admission, are on sale at the Arena ticket office and at all Highlander Men Stores and Metro Ticket Agencies throughout San Diego.

The Suns, coached by Johnny Kerr, already own a 116-114 victory over the Rockets, having gained the win in the season debut for both clubs last Thursday at Phoenix.

Driving Class Set

The La Mesa Recreation Department's Senior Program in cooperation with San Diego Traffic Safety Council will present another series of Driver Improvement classes each Monday morning from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. during the month of November.

Pre-registration is necessary in order to form this class.

FINISHING TOUCH — Harold Franklin, operator of All-American Upholstery in Lemon Grove, adds a decorator clock as a final touch to a dining room display in his shop. After years of upholstering furniture, Franklin has added new furniture to his stock.

Aquarian School Offers Guidance

The Aquarian School, opening November 17 in Santee, introduces a whole new concept in educative processes for teenagers. It is designed to provide preventative guidance for young people who might be tempted to experiment with drugs or other forms of escapism, according to Dr. Betty Meador.

She and her husband, Dr. Bruce Meador, both members of the Center for the Studies of the Person, are staff Psychologists for the Aquarian School.

The purpose of the school is not corrective, for youngsters already in legal trouble, Dr. Meador said. Rather it is to help the teenager handle the sometimes difficult adjustments he has to make.

The program is aimed toward youngsters with no apparent conflicts with school or family as well as those who find social adjustment difficult or who seem headed for trouble.

According to Mrs. Ernestine Paine, Administrative Assistant, the Aquarian School program will consist of five days of in-residence training in first-order experiences followed by 10 weekly three-hour workshops.

Most adjustment problems stem from the inability to communicate, Mrs. Paine explained. The first step in this process is to become aware of what one has to communicate; one then learns how.

This second step will be started in small problem-solving sessions during the in-residence week, and continued in the weekly workshops.

All-American in New Bag, Sells Furniture

Harold Franklin, long-time Lemon Grove businessman, has changed his ways and is offering something new.

A furniture upholsterer for years, Franklin has decided to move into selling new furniture and accessories as well as maintaining his old trade.

Franklin owns and operates the All-American Upholstery Shop, 7761 Broadway.

He is celebrating the change by inviting customers to an open house, a chance to look at the new stock and enjoy the refurbished surroundings, and also drop a name into a box for a December drawing.

The name will be picked out of the box at a drawing scheduled for Friday, December 19 at 2 p.m.

Customers can buy new furniture from scratch or pay off part of the cost by trading in old furniture, an advantage unique to a combination reupholstering outfit.

Franklin also offers rugs, drapes and household items.

Franklin has been reupholstering furniture since 1937 and has maintained a shop in Lemon Grove for 12 years.

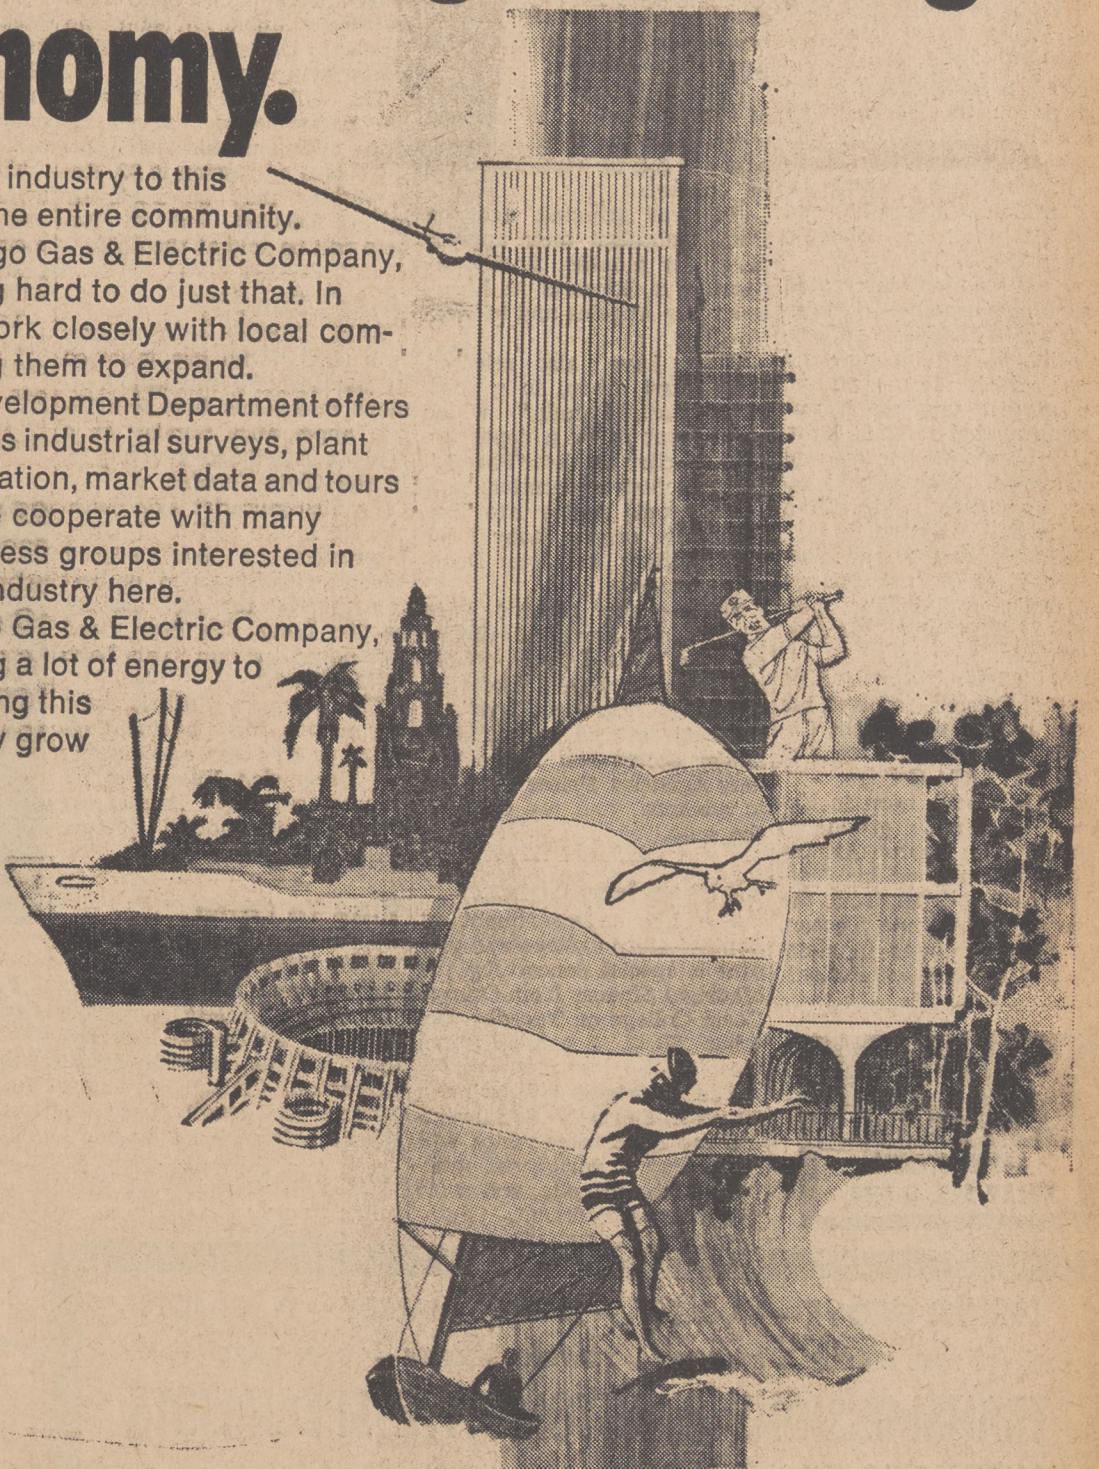

He's open daily, 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

We put a lot of energy into building San Diego's economy.

Attracting new industry to this area benefits the entire community. At the San Diego Gas & Electric Company, we are working hard to do just that. In addition, we work closely with local companies, helping them to expand.

Our Area Development Department offers services such as industrial surveys, plant location information, market data and tours of the area. We cooperate with many civic and business groups interested in bringing new industry here.

At San Diego Gas & Electric Company, we are devoting a lot of energy to the job of helping this area's economy grow and prosper.

Doors, Morrison To Light Fires Sunday

The Doors, a national phenomenon two years ago and center of controversy today, will appear in San Diego's Balboa Stadium Sunday at 1 p.m.

Several other acts will also appear, but have not been named yet.

The Doors include Jim Morrison and three musicians.

Morrison has been described as a poet, a singer, a new dramatist and "an ogre" by the Mexican press.

What he does is come on strong, whether reciting free-form poetry, singing revolutionary songs or collapsing in a heap on the floor.

Morrison's lyrics delve into the underworld, the mystic. He is noted for poem-songs like "The End" and "When the Music's Over" — extended readings over thundering instruments.

Light Show On Display

A Laser Environment created by Matt Glavin and Don Campbell, will be featured at the Fine Arts Gallery of San Diego, Balboa Park, tomorrow through November 31.

It is circulated under the auspices of the Hansen Gallery, San Francisco and will be seen in Texas, New Mexico, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Indiana, Nebraska and Ohio on a tour schedule through 1970.

The environment is created by a transparent box containing refracting prisms, reflecting mirrors and low-powered lasers which form pen-line thin, almost tangible beams of concentrated reddish light.

The beams flicker on and off, revolve, bounce and refract in silence and with a cyclic, cosmic rhythm.

Radiating from the machine, the beams create patterns on the walls and ceiling, pinpoints, calligraphic streaks, comet tails.

Matt Glavin, a native of Portland, Oregon, received his formal art training at the California College of Arts and Crafts and Mills College.

Don Campbell, born in Kokomo, Indiana, graduated from the John Herron Art Institute and received his Master of Arts Degree from the University of Arizona, Tucson. Both have exhibited in state-wide and national exhibitions.

The quartet was the center of controversy last spring when Morrison's antics allegedly got out of hand in a Miami concert.

He was arrested, and the Doors cancelled their appearances for months, finally appearing in concerts in home town Los Angeles and in Mexico City.

They have also released their first album in a year, "The Soft Parade," which turned out to be a departure from earlier works. "Parade" features instrumentation.

Morrison's mates are Ray Manzarek, organ; Roby Krieger, guitar; and John Densmore, drums.

The group records with Elektra and has four albums on sale: "The Doors", "Waiting For The Sun", "Soft Parade", and "Strange Days".

Tickets are on sale at Highlander Stores and Metro Ticket Agencies. Prices are $3.75 in advance and are $4.25 at the gate.

Recital To Spotlight Milos Sadlo

SAN DIEGO — Milos Sadlo, internationally renowned Czechoslovakian violoncellist and member of the music faculty of USIU's School of Performing Arts, will give his first recital at the University's Center for the Performing Arts, 350 Cedar st., at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

Sadlo, who taught at the Prague Academy of Arts before joining the United States International University SPA faculty this fall, has performed with most of the leading orchestras of Europe — the London Symphony, the Halle, Berlin and Vienna Symphonies, and the Moscow Symphony.

He has made his home in San Diego at the invitation of Zoltan Rozsnyai, artistic head of SPA's Music Division and Musical Director of the San Diego Symphony.

This will mark his first public performance as soloist since taking up his new post.

General admission is $2. Reservations may be made by calling 239-0391, Ext. 42. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Arlo's Sunday
SAN DIEGO — A young folk singer who has followed in his father's musical footsteps makes his first San Diego appearance Sunday at a concert scheduled for 8 p.m. in the Civic Theatre.

Vocalist-guitarist Arlo Guthrie, 22, is the son of the late Depression-era balladeer Woody Guthrie, who is best remembered for such classics as "So Long, It's Been Good to Know You" and "This Land Is My Land."

The younger Guthrie, who began his show business career three years ago singing in Greenwich Village coffee houses, currently is starring in the hit motion picture "Alice's Restaurant."

Play To Open
Leila Sardagna and Robert Blakely Hays, both of El Cajon, will play the lead roles in "Goodbye Charlie," a two-act comedy by George Axelrod, that will be staged in the Grossmont College Playhouse October 23 through 25 and October 30 through November 1.

Experimental Dance Program Scheduled

"Transparencies," a program of dance concentrating on time and space values, will be presented at 8 p.m. Wednesday, in the Art Gallery at the University of California, San Diego.

The presentation, an experiment in performance structure, is free and open to the public.

Participating in the sequences will be Aviva, Fred and Lynn Lonidier, Claudia Bader, Barbara Zakarian, Mike Maxwell, Peter Lioshkov, John White and Jerry Walker, all representing the youthful movement in the untraditional theatre. Lioshkov and White are coming down from Los Angeles especially for this performance.

This revolt of the traditional theatre stems from the EAT (the association that is bringing the arts and sciences together with industrial sponsorship) and includes such revolutionaries as Steve Paxton, Alex Hay, John Cage and Robert Rauschenberg. Most of the performers for Wednesday have studied with Paxton and are part of the Del Mar group seen in Claus von Wendel's studio.

Aviva studied at New York art schools and has participated in the EAT in New York and Los Angeles. She formed the American Ritual Theatre and has done 18 concerts in the San Diego area. She is presently working to organize a Department of Dance at UCSD.

Filmmaker Lynn Lonidier has done visuals with the Electric Circus in New York and at the New Hampshire Music Festival. She has done films at Kairos in Rancho Santa Fe and at the Cinematheque in New York and has given concerts with the Department of Music at UCSD and in connection with the Art Gallery there. Her brother, Fred, assists Lynn's poetry readings with visuals in mixed media pieces.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

What is the meaning of the expression "hacerse ilusiones?" Is this a phrase that has something to do with illusions? Also, is the correct Spanish spelling of "illusions" with one or two "l's?"

"Hacerse ilusiones" is an idiomatic expression in Spanish which means "to kid oneself." The verb "hacerse" means "to make for oneself." Thus "hacerse ilusiones" is simply "to make illusions for oneself" or more specifically "to kid oneself." There is one "l" in "ilusiones."

"Yo me hago ilusiones" is a variation of "hacerse ilusiones" which means "I am kidding myself." If you wish to say to your Spanish-speaking friends "Don't kid yourself" you would say "No se haga ilusiones."

"Ilusion" also means "hope." For example, "Tengo ilusiones," would be translated "I have hopes." In another example, "Ella tiene ilusiones," would be translated "She has hopes."

"Ilusionar" is a verb form. The English translation for this verb is "to thrill." The phrase "Me ilusiona mucho," which uses "ilusionar" is translated "It thrills me very much."

"Ilusionarse" is the reflexive form of the same verb and means "to excite oneself." For example, "Se ilusiona con todo" is translated "She gets excited with everything."

The phrases below contain variations of "ilusionar" and "ilusionarse." You may wish to practice them with the recorded voice on 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Que ilusion!" (keh ee-loo-see-OHN) for "What a thrill!"
Say "Yo me hago ilusiones." (yoh meh AH-goh ee-loo-see-OH-nehs) for "I am kidding myself."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "No se haga ilusiones." (noh seh AH-gah ee-loo-see-OH-nehs) for "Don't kid yourself."
Say "Ella tiene ilusiones." (EH-yah tee-EH-neh ee-loo-see-OH-nehs) for "She has hopes."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Se ilusiona con todo." (seh ee-loo-see-OH-nah kohn TOH-thoh) for "She gets excited with everything."
Say "Yo no se porque." (yoh noh seh pohr-keh) for "I don't know why."

Monarch Seniors Bid For Parking Spaces

Monte Vista High School senior class's annual parking space sales netted $436 in a "highest bidder" auction.

Gordon Dunnill, Senior Class president, was in charge of the auction while over 500 seniors bid for 38 front row spaces.

Approximately $9.90 was the average per space while spaces at the far end of the school averaged just 35 cents.

Ginger Schultz's spot was the most expensive at $15.50. Craig Howry and Gary Whitehead weren't far behind however as theirs went for $15 each.

After purchasing the space, each senior then chose a name which was painted in his or her spot, this being a tradition at Monte Vista.

The names varied drastically with such imaginative types as Craig Alexander's "Alex's Restaurant"; Joyce Lively and Robbie Clemesha's "The Odd Couple"; Janet Hermsillo's "Mighty Mouth";

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO VACATE AND ABANDON A DRAINAGE EASEMENT AT THE INTERSECTION OF FEDERAL BOULEVARD AND COLLEGE AVENUE, LEMON GROVE

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution on September 29, 1969, declaring its intention to vacate and abandon the following described drainage easement:

(That certain drainage easement relinquished to the County of San Diego by the State of California, in Parcel "G" of Lot 19 of the Rancho Mission, by Document No. 73445 Recorded May 25, 1956 of Official Records of San Diego County, described as follows:

"That portion of the center line of Lot 19 of the Rancho Mission of San Diego, according to Partition Map as shown in Case No. 12524 of the Superior Court of California in and for the County of San Diego, entitled "J. W. Coffey vs. Viola M. Roach, Executrix", included within a strip of land 15 feet wide, lying 7.5 feet on each side of the following described center line:

COMMENCING at the intersection of the center line of College Avenue, 100 feet wide, as the right of way for said Avenue is described in the County of San Diego, recorded in Book 3395, page 244 of Official Records of said County, with the center line of Federal Boulevard, 80 feet wide, as the right of way for said Boulevard, is described in deed to the County of San Diego recorded in Book 1218, page 270 of Deeds, records of said County; thence along said center line of Federal Boulevard N 50°27'04" E, 57.49 feet; thence leaving said center line at right angles S 39°32'56" E, 40.90 feet to a point on the southern line of said center line of Federal Boulevard and the TRUE POINT OF BEGINNING; thence continuing S 39°32'56" E, 67.34 feet, thence along a tangent curve to the right with a radius of 450 feet, through an angle of 40°11'37", a distance of 34.02 feet to a point on a line which is parallel with and 7.5 feet westerly at right angles from the center line of said Lot of Rancho Mission; thence along said parallel line S 03°48'41" W, 72 feet, more or less, to a point in the center line of the main creek channel, which flows generally southwest by last said point; the side lines of the herein described 15 foot strip to be prolonged or shortened so as to end in the center line of said creek channel.

Containing 2600 square feet, more or less.

The Board has fixed Monday, November 3, 1969, at 2:00 p.m., and the south chamber of said Board, Room 358 San Diego County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego, California, as the time and place for hearing on said resolution of intention.

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED to appear at the time and place fixed for said hearing and show cause, if any, why said drainage easement should not be vacated and abandoned.

For further details reference is hereby made to said resolution of intention on file in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 306 of said Administration Center.

Route 94 Stop Sign Installed

The California Division of Highways announced that a stop sign has been installed facing westbound traffic on Route 94 (Campo road) at the intersection with Route 54 (Jamacha road).

District Engineer Jacob Dekema said that an engineering study showed that the larger percentage of traffic coming from the Spring Valley-Casa de Oro area continues east on Jamacha road to El Cajon.

The stopping of westbound Route 94 traffic from the Jamul area will reduce the conflict with the eastbound Route 94 traffic traveling to El Cajon.

This revision became effective Monday.

Magician Harry Houdini also invented a diving suit.

FOR FRIENDS — Accepting a check for $859 to build a new school in South America is Ivan Rosales (center), a Peace Corps representative from Nicaragua. Presenting the check is Mrs. William Hobb, president of

Bancroft Raises $ For School

Approximately one year ago, the student body at Bancroft Elementary School, along with the school's PTA as a sponsoring unit, undertook the task of raising enough money to build a school in South America. That dream became a reality yesterday when representatives of the Peace Corps accepted a check for $859.

Representing the West Coast division of the school participation program was Miss Kathy Jones, Miss Jones then introduced Ivan Rosales of Nicaragua who accepted the check from Mrs. William Hobb, president of the Bancroft School PTA.

The school which, in all probability, will be built in Nicaragua, will be the result of various labors of love by the school and the PTA.

Rosales, an important journalist in his native country, was also a war correspondent as well as a representative of his government.

10 Millionth Phone Installed by PacTel

LA MESA — It may be yellow or it may be black. It may be resting on a desk or it may be fixed to a wall. And it may be in a business house or it may be in a residence.

No one knows for sure. But two things are certain. It is the 10 millionth telephone to be installed by Pacific Telephone in the State of California and it was installed last week.

"We don't know for sure who received the 10 millionth instrument because so many installations were scheduled during the week," Nell Finnegan, local exchange manager, admitted candidly.

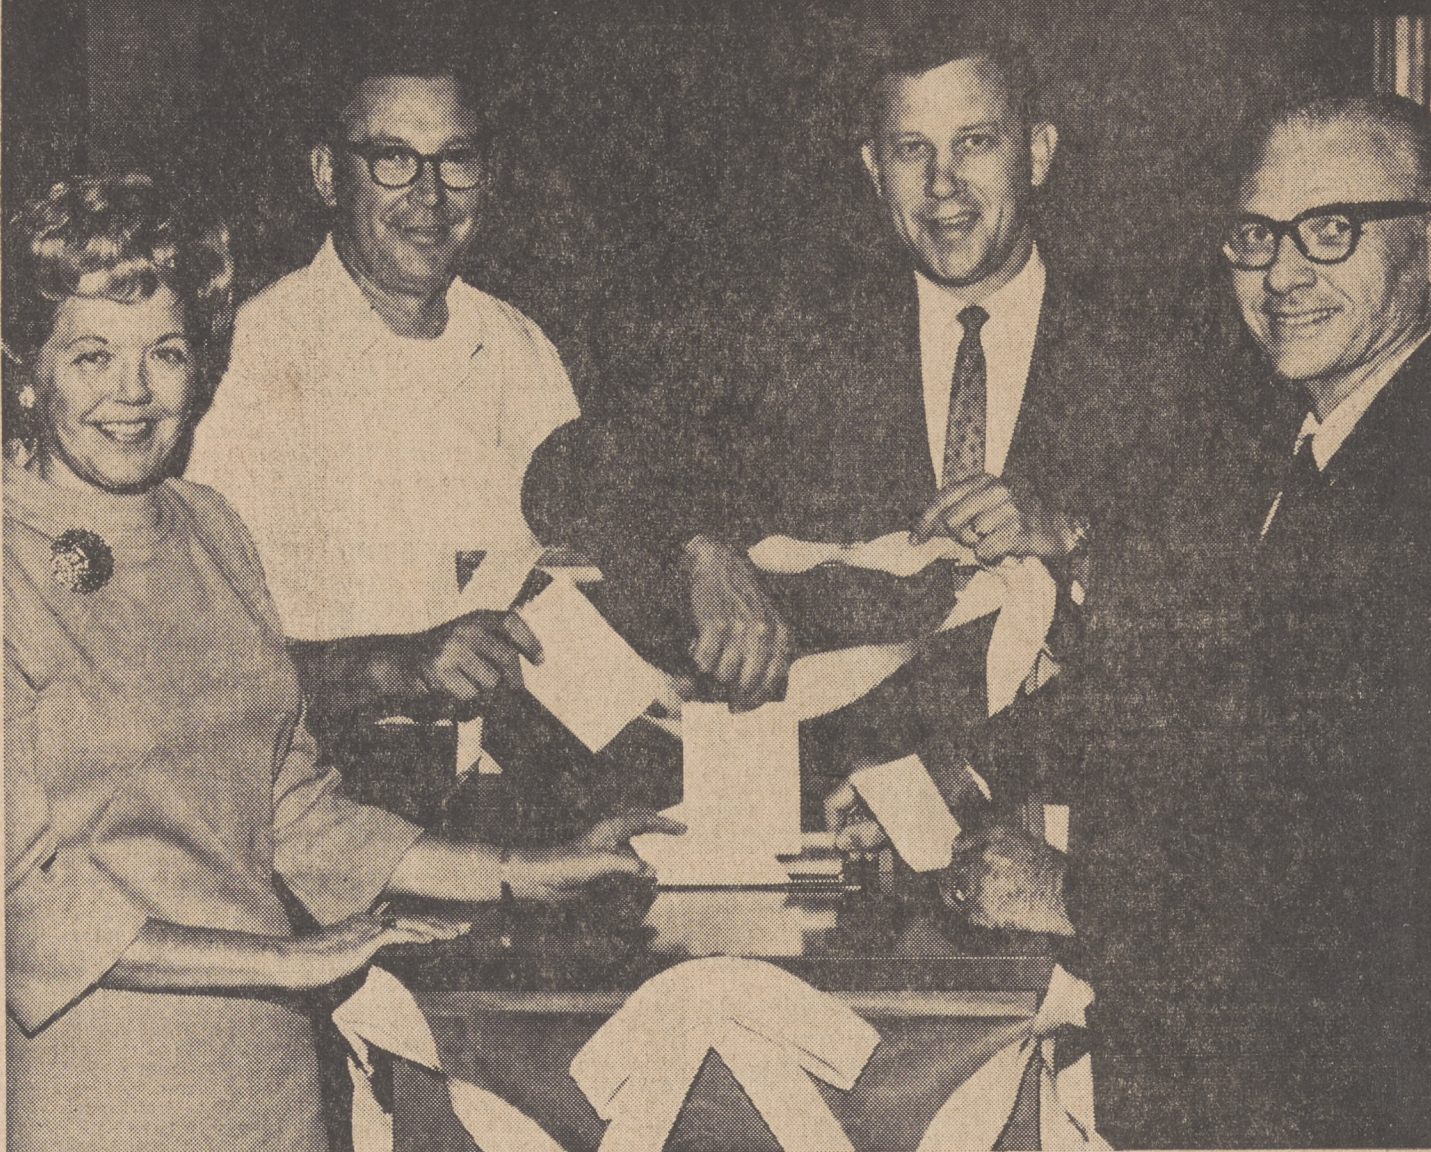

"But we do know that growth rate figures pointed to the fact that the 10 millionth phone was installed this week . . . maybe right here in our community," the manager continued.

The first phone in the local exchange was installed in 1912. Phones total 45,177 here now, she added.

Mrs. Finnegan pointed out that there are about 13 million phones in use in the state today — that includes 2.8 million phones served by independent phone companies — which puts California about 657,000 instruments ahead of second place New York.

"That's 61.8 telephones per every 100 Californians, a figure that has doubled since 1947," Mrs. Finnegan declared.

HOPEFUL — Representatives of four local civic groups eligible to receive a $500 donation from Southern California First National Bank deposit ballots at the Lemon Grove Office, 8285 Imperial Ave. The donation was made to the community by SCFNB as part of the 20th anniversary and recent remodeling of the Lemon Grove Office. Residents have been voting this week for their choice of charities to receive the $500 and may continue to do so until 6 p.m. tomorrow when the ballots will be counted. County Delays Zoning Decision

By DICK SIMS
SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Only a handful of people showed up at the first hearing on the far-reaching subject of zoning all of the unzoned unincorporated territory in the county.

Perhaps 30 people were present to protest, out of some 40,000 living in the unzoned territory and many non-resident land owners.

Those remaining at the end of the long hearing applauded the commission's decision to continue the matter until Nov. 7.

This decision came in a four to three vote, but there was no indication that the commission will not eventually recommend zoning of the entire county. The three commissioners voting no wanted the recommendation made at Friday's hearing.

The final action will be up to the Board of Supervisors, and perhaps it is the board's announced intention to zone all land that kept the attendance down.

The commission was also considering a new zone, the Limited Control (LC) zone, which allows the same land uses in the heavy agricultural zone of A-4 and one or two family residences on minimum lots of two and a half acres.

All other land uses can also be allowed if the county sees fit to grant a special use permit.

In a display of bad timing, the county has decided that the fee for most special use permits will be raised from $40 to $200 on Nov. 1, a stiff increase, but one that still will not cover the county costs.

This enabled the protesters to complain of the amount of the fee and say the fee increase and the zoning action were not co-incidental.

State Board Can't Decide On Searches

Will California schools launch widespread searches of students' lockers for narcotics as suggested by Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of schools?

Answers to that question were left up in the air at the conclusion of a recent meeting of the State Board of Education in Sacramento.

While the board approved Rafferty's suggestion for the locker search, which he calls "Operation TURNOFF," local boards are not required to conduct the search.

Added to the proposal was a suggestion by Barbara Marshment, student representative on the board, that students be present if their lockers are to be searched. Rafferty said he would send another memo to school officials concerning this point. His original memo was sent Oct. 7, prior to the meeting.

Miss Marshment, a junior at Carondelet High School, told the board that since drugs are a problem, "It is good we have something like this," but "I think if you go into lockers without students knowing, the kids would complain that their rights are being violated. If the kids are there, that would be perfectly fine."

A move by Board Member

Miguel Montes, San Fernando dentist, that a sentence be stricken from the letter recommending that non-uniformed police be used for the searches failed to win board approval.

Montes argued that if inspections occur at all, they should not be done by the police. The police should be called in only if "something is found in a locker."

He predicted "a great deal of student tension" if police are called in to inspect lockers merely on the basis of suspicion.

Before giving Dr. Rafferty's project their approval, several other board members questioned the "moral implications" of the search.

Rafferty, however, argued that it would not be moral if school officials were going to pry into the private lives and "love letters" of students. But it would be moral to search for drugs or weapons.

"This is something schools have been doing ever since they have been founded," he said. "I think that since lockers are school property, this is perfectly proper."

What's doing?

While most people who sell by telephone are considerate, once in awhile you'll find someone who rudely persists—even after you've told them politely that you're not interested in what they're selling. In such a case, my advice is to simply hang up. Of course, if the caller continues to bother you, be sure and contact your Business Office. We want your telephone to be a convenience.

This year Californians are celebrating the state's bicentennial—the 200th anniversary of the founding of the first settlement in San Diego by the Spanish. In keeping with the celebration of this important first step in our history, official state commemorative medallions have been struck from both bronze and silver. These distinctive medallions carry the state symbol, a grizzly bear, on the face; and figures symbolic of the state's history on the reverse side. They're available for purchase at most banks and at savings and loan associations throughout the state.

Pay phones are usually in busy places where they're convenient to the passerby. Places like hotel lobbies and main thoroughfares. So the spotlighted phone booth on the roof of a building was the source of much speculation. Among those whose curiosity was aroused by this "booth in the sky" was a helicopter-borne traffic reporter who began asking questions. The explanation: the building belongs to one of the companies that manufactures our phone booths—and while a roof top may be a novel location for one, it makes for some unusual conversation!
